Poona
Wildflowers, Wine & Jazz

Sat 21st Sept 24

So here's a little taste of what's to come!

WILDFLOWERS - We are so lucky to be surrounded by pristine areas where flora and fauna flourish. Our enthusiastic Garden Group have been working hard getting things ready. We will have 2 Guided Walks (1 hour each) - Guided Wildflower Walk AND Guided Woodland and Wallum Walk. These will be led by experts who are coming to Poona for the day. More details coming on how you can join one of these groups. Also a Self Guided Walk will be available for those who want a shorter walk at their own pace. Keep an eye on this page for more posts by our fabulous Garden Group.

WINE - We have invited some fabulous businesses from around the Fraser Coast and South Burnett to bring us a taste of their great wines and spirits. We welcome Moffatdale Ridge Winery, Amrita Park Meadery and The Spirit Collective. Tastings will be available and you can then purchase some new favourites. We will have Kenilworth Dairies cheese Taster Boxes to enjoy as well!

JAZZ - We are excited to have Andy Luv and The Luv Catz playing some fabulous jazz and blues numbers from 11 am - 2 pm. Make sure you join us for a relaxing afternoon of great music.

This is just a snapshot, also with Mega Car & Bike Show (free registration and lots of great trophies)
Over 50 market stalls, food, drink and coffee vans,

We reckon nothing beats our Queensland Winters - how gorgeous has the weather been! I think Mother Nature might have one last cold snap in store for us so pull out your winter woollies and hit the water because the fishing is hot hot hot. Let's check out this fortnight's report.

Let's start off this fortnight's report with the heart of our area – The Mary River. Anglers have been battling with big tides and run coming off the full moon but have reaped the rewards with Threadfin Salmon up to 10kg coming over the sides of boats plus monster black and silver bream. Grunter up to and over 60cm long and legal Black Jew (over 75cm) and with the few warmer days this past week the Barra are starting to get interested. If the reports keep coming in like they are we are going to have an awesome Barra and Thready season. Remember the old timers – when the mulberries are on, so are they.

Then head out into the Great Sandy Straits via the mouth of the River down through the Turkey Straits fisho's have fished the snags and drains for Thready's as well as Flathead and Whiting. Moving across the channel over along the Islands ledges and drop off boaties are still landing Squirey Snapper, Nannygai, Coral Bream also known as Grassy Sweetlip, Blackall and Cod not to mention all the bi catches of pelagic fish such as Spottie and Grey Mackerel, Tailor, Golden Trevally and Queenies. You'll have the best chance on the reef fish bottom bashing with squid or livies where the pelagic species tend to hunt on the surface so a floated ganged pillie or flesh strip would do the trick. Don't forget to have a squid jig on board as we are getting reports of some nice tigers.

Still worth soaking a pot, the quality of the mud crabs at the moment is great.

The outer reefs over the bottom wide bay bar there has been plenty of reports of Pearl Perch, Snapper, Coral Trout, Cobia, Red and Spangled Emperor plus many species of Cod and we continue to get reports from the top of Fraser and the gutters of Reds, Trout, Spangled Emperor and Cod.

So many whale reports, they are everywhere, from Point Vernon to Riverheads right in close, and of course if you are traveling along the island or out wide please keep your eyes peeled. They are absolutely majestic and beautiful animals but you don't want to run into one.

Good news for anyone heading over to the back beach – great reports of tailor.

For our freshies – bass are still being landed in Tinana creek (Teddington) and Lenthals Dam is also shaping up to fish the best it has in years with reports of nice bass and barra already being landed.

Lets have a look at the brag board.

This is our very own Jan with an amazing cod caught in the Sandy Straits, it went 96cm and was safely released. What a fish!!!

Sept 2024

Around 1000 accidental house fires happen every year. Queenslanders are at risk if they don't make an escape plan, or have interconnected photoelectric smoke alarms.

QFES' Home Fire Safety campaign launched on Sunday 17 March 2024. The campaign urges Queenslanders to 'Plan to survive,' highlighting the importance of having a home fire escape plan and interconnected photoelectric smoke alarms, to survive a home fire.

Interconnected smoke alarms are already mandatory in all rentals and accommodation.

Now is the time for all householders to instal these life saving devices. There will be ads on free-to-air and catch-up TV, YouTube, radio, cinema, print, digital display and social media. There will also be social media and radio ads. This public safety campaign encourages behaviour change in Queensland residents to create a Home Fire Escape Plan and install interconnected photoelectric smoke alarms. Plan to survive.!
